Day as a Knight - Central Catholic High School

Have you ever wondered what your day would be like...if you were a KNIGHT?

The Knight Times

The administration, faculty, staff and students of Central Catholic High School invite all 8th grade students across the Ohio Valley to join us on Friday, November 2nd. Our student guests will sit in on classes, explore club and sport opportunities, meet other members of the Class of 2023, tour the school and talk with current students who have already been KNIGHTED! The day gets underway at 8:00 in the Great Hall and concludes at 2:00. Be our guest for lunch and discover all of the many benefits of continuing your education at Central Catholic High School. Students enrolled in one of our partner schools are already registered for Day as a Knight! Any family who would like to register their son/daughter, currently in 8th grade and not enrolled in a Catholic school – please call John Yelenic, Director of Enrollment and Retention, at 304-905-6241. We look forward to seeing YOU in Maroon on November 2nd
